

A: Welcome back to Radio RAM English Zone 'strefa angielskiego' on typical mistakes in English.
B: And today we're going to discuss and explain 2 typical mistakes.
A: The mistakes are: 'Family town' and 'if you have a time'.
B: So, please listen carefully if you want to speak better English!
A: OK, so where are we today? - Let's choose a card... (rustle)
B: Today we're walking and talking in a park.
A: Oh, how nice. Let's start. It's a beautiful day for a walk, isn't it, Verity?
B: Yeah, that's right. 'Having a lovely day here, but tomorrow, I'm going to a town called Konin.
A: Koniń,
B: Yes Konin.
A: I know that town. That's my wife's family town.
B: Oh, you mean your wife's hometown. Oh, that's interesting. Can you recommend some places for me to go, please?
A: In Konin? Umm.. that will be a little bit difficult because Konin is a little bit like Harlow in England.
B: Oh, no, not Harlow.
A: Yes, there are a lot of colourful tower blocks in Konin though.
B: Oh I love tower blocks.
A: Yes, beautiful architecture from communism and also there's a very nice power-station.
B: Oh, wonderful, power-stations - beautiful.
A: Obviously, if you have a time to visit them.
B: If I have time, I'll try and visit them. But do recommend anywhere else?
A: Yeah, go back on the road to Wrocław and you'll be much happier.
B: I think that sounds like a good recommendation, thank you Terry.
B: OK, now let's put it into your own context.
A: Konin is my hometown. If I have time, I'm going to stay in Wrocław, really.
B: (ha ha ha) OK, Put the correct English into a personal context and you won't forget it.
B: New RAM English Zone on typical mistakes.
C: With Terry Clark-Ward, and the very special, young lady, Verity Duncan.
